

FROM SELINA SAMUEL

Dear

I hope that you are fine and me to o I'm fine. The aim of writing this letter is to thank you for your kind support in my studies. Thank you very much for your lovely care which you have shown ^{to} me, it shows how kind you are. I know that saying thank you is a small thing which cannot be compared to a support which you have provide to me, and also I know that I can't pay you anything now, but the only thing that I can pay is that I will be praying for you forever and ever in my life and may God bless you in your work and any place wherever you go. Thank you very much.

From your lovely daughter Selina Samuel.
