

Hello! How are you? I hope you are fine I'm also fine with my studies here at Sakura and the life at Sakura is going well and very nice.

The purpose of writing this letter is to appreciate you for your support and I'm praying for you to have long and happy life. I really say thank you for your lovely support. I know that the key of success is education that's why I'm studying hard in order to succeed.

Finally I would like to welcome you at Sakura girls Secondary School and wish you a happy life.

Your lovely daughter
Laura Emanuel
